“I’m thrilled to announce my clothing line Abbey Dawn. Abbey Dawn will aspire to be a unique and accessible reflection of my ever-changing style. I’m so excited to be launching exclusively in the U.S. at Kohl’s for back-to-school 2008,” says Lavigne.

“Avril Lavigne is an accomplished artist with a dedicated fan base who appeals to a broad group of shoppers,” said Don Brennan, senior executive vice president of Kohl’s. “We’re excited to launch Abbey Dawn, which will offer new affordable fashion collections every 60 days, further differentiating Kohl’s in the marketplace.”

The 2008 back-to-school collection is created from Lavigne’s own closet and will feature two key fashion collections at launch. The first features a combination of feminine sophistication and rock-and-roll attitude, which includes bold colors and mix-and-match iconic prints; and the second features a fusion of ska, reggae and skater with a balance of traditional tartan plaids, checks and stripes.

Apparel and jewelry will be available at launch. Additional categories may be added over time. Abbey Dawn will be sized 0-13 in bottoms and S-XL in tops. Apparel prices will range from $24 to $48.

Abbey Dawn will join Kohl’s existing line-up of exclusive and private brands and comes on the heels of recent announcements like Dana Buchman and FILA SPORT and successful launches like Simply Vera Vera Wang and Food Network.
