Kohl's Accessorizes in Bows and Polka Dots this Holiday Season with Exclusive Cause Merchandise from LC Lauren Conrad

100 percent of the net profit will be donated to support the fight against breast cancer

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., November 15, 2012 – Kohl's Department Stores (NYSE: KSS) invites customers to wear bows and polka dots while joining the fight against breast cancer this holiday season with a new collection from the Kohl's Cares® cause merchandise program. The newest collection, designed by Lauren Conrad, will be available now through February 3 and offers fashionable, on-trend apparel, accessories and gifts which can be found in all 40 Wisconsin Kohl's stores and online at Kohls.com/Cares, with 100 percent of the net profit donated to support the fight against breast cancer.

Available for only $5 and $10 each, the LC Lauren Conrad collection features a variety of chic and stylish apparel and accessories that support women's health. From tees, pajama pants and chemises to headbands, slippers and jewelry, all items are designed in holiday shades of red with classic LC Lauren Conrad bird prints, polka dots and bows while sporting the signature pink ribbon. In Wisconsin Kohl's stores, the breast cancer cause merchandise has its own center aisle display where all items are located in one spot to make it easy for customers to support the cause. To view the entire collection or to purchase these items online, visit Kohls.com/Cares.

"We are excited to offer our newest collection, designed by Lauren Conrad, from our Kohl's Cares cause merchandise program," said Vicki Shamion, Kohl's senior vice president, public relations, social marketing and community relations. "This new collection is perfect for the holiday season and allows customers to support the fight against breast cancer by giving stylish, yet affordable gifts that give back."

Kohl's cause merchandise supporting the fight against breast cancer is available year-round, with 100 percent of the net profit donated to the cause. Kohl's has supported women's health with a commitment of $7 million to the American Cancer Society's Midwest Division and the Southeast Wisconsin Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure® to support breast cancer research, education and patient-assistance programs.

The Kohl's Cares women's health initiative builds upon Kohl's long history of charitable involvement in the communities it serves. Since 2000, Kohl's and the Kohl's Cares program have combined to give approximately $43.4 million to support charitable initiatives in the metro-Milwaukee area. In addition, over the past 10 years, the company's Kohl's Cares cause merchandise program, which sells plush toys and books, has raised more than $208 million to benefit children's health and education initiatives nationwide.
