Kohl's Donates Nearly $18 Million in Corporate Grants
Through 'Associates in Action' Volunteer Program in 2014

Nearly $100 million in corporate grants have been earned since the program's inception in 2001

MENOMONEE FALLS, Wis., February 18, 2015 – Kohl's Department Stores (NYSE: KSS) today announced the donation of nearly $18 million in corporate grants benefiting more than 8,500 nonprofit organizations across the country in 2014 through Kohl's best-in-class Associates in Action (AiA) volunteer program. Since the program's inception, Kohl's, through the AiA program, has donated nearly $100 million in corporate grants, serving thousands of youth-serving nonprofits nationwide. To kick off 2015 volunteering, today nearly 3,000 Kohl's associates from around the country participated in Kohl's largest-ever volunteer event in Orlando, Florida, as part of the company's annual leadership meeting, packing 50,000 care packages of kid-friendly activity items for children receiving services from more than 160 Kohl's Cares® hospital partners.

"Kohl's AiA program has seen a steady increase in associate participation with thousands of volunteer events held and millions of volunteer hours donated to nonprofit organizations since the program began," said Bevin Bailis, Kohl's senior vice president of public relations and communications. "Our associates are deeply committed to service, both in our stores and in the communities in which we do business. To keep the momentum going, Kohl's kicked off 2015 with a volunteer event benefiting tens of thousands of patients at hospitals across America."

The AiA program is part of Kohl's overall philanthropic platform, Kohl's Cares®, which includes the Kohl's Cares cause merchandise program, Kohl's Cares Scholarship Program, Kohl's Cares Hospital Program and fundraising gift card program. Additional information and how to qualify for an AiA grant can be found online.
